

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ANDREW JOHN GIBSON,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:14-cr-00287-KJD-CWH

ORDER

Presently before the court are several filings from pro se Defendant Andrew John Gibson (ECF Nos. 103, 104 and 105), filed between November 4th and 7th, 2016. The government has not filed any response.

ECF No. 103 is a “notice” to the court which consists of a number of legal citations without any argument or request for relief. No court order requiring any such document has been made, and Defendant does not provide any reason that such a document is necessary for the record. The court will therefore strike this document.

ECF No. 104 is a motion for “CCA to print motions.” Defendant has not included in his motion any specific information from which the court can determine the reasonableness of his request, including the amount of printing he has been allowed, the amount of further printing that he believes is necessary, or any support for the necessity of such printing. The court will not issue a blanket order for unlimited printing of legal material. The court will therefore deny the motion without prejudice.

ECF No. 105 is a letter addressed to the government which was filed in error. The court will therefore strike this document.
